Organizations that the Guild Supports with Quilts

Adeara Addiction Recovery Centre (adeara.ca)

Long term program for women with children.

Basically Babies (basicallybabies.org)

They provide hampers for families in extreme need. Accept baby/crib/toddler quilts.

Blankets of Love (blanketsoflove.ca)

14839-118 Avenue - see website for hours. Foundation for Mental Health. They accept lap/twin size quilts to distribute at Christmas to people in hospital due to mental health issues. They also accept knitted/crocheted blankets. Goal is 550 quilts.

Edmonton General Hospital Complex Care Unit

A guild member supplies them with lap/wheelchair quilts.

Habitat for Humanity (hfh.org)

They help families obtain their own home. Accept quilts of all sizes, wall hangings, and table toppers.

Jessie's House (jessicamartelmemorialfoundation.com)

A domestic abuse shelter for all genders in Morinville. They accept queen, double and lap quilts. Donations coordinators: sharen.katzeff@jmmf.ca and lynne.rosychuk@jmmf.ca

Northeast Community Health Centre (780-342-4000) 14007-50 St NW

A group of guild members supply them with baby quilts and receiving blankets.

Oakhill Ranch (www.oakhillranch.ca)

A therapeutic campus based program by Bon Accord, require 30-50 twin quilts per year for youth 9-16 years of age.

Pregnancy Pathways (www.royalalex.org/our-impact/project/pregnancy-pathways)

Provide housing and prenatal care for pregnant women who are homeless as well as housing post delivery. They require double, twin and baby quilts.

Quilts of Valour (quiltsofvalour.ca)

Sew days at the Veterans Food Bank, 18508-111 Avenue NW. RSVP to Jennifer Owens, secretary@quiltsofvalour.ca. Check the website for quilt requirements. Edmonton area Rep: Diana Cole 780-984-0016.

Quilts for Survivors (quiltsforsurvivors.ca)

Accept quilts for survivors of residential school. See website for details.

Ronald McDonald House (rmhcalberta.org) Edmonton: 780-439-5437

Quilts for children. They receive a lot of quilts so check if there is a need.

Sleep in Heavenly Peace (julie.parr@shpbeds.org) 780-267-8211

They assemble and deliver beds, including mattresses, bed linens, and quilts to children in need.

Society of St. Vincent de Paul (ssvp.ca)

They accept quilts of all sizes and household goods year-round. In the spring they accept donations to send to an isolated northern village.

Terra Centre for Teen Parents (terracentre.ca)

Non-profit helping pregnant and parenting teens develop skills for success. They need receiving blankets, baby and crib size quilts, and a few larger quilts for siblings. They do a hamper for their clients in December. Email terra@terracentre.ca for more information.

Valour Place (info@valourplace.ca)

Serves military, veterans, first responders and their families from out of town when in town for health issues.

Wings of Providence (wingsofprovidence.ca) 780-426-4985

Provides fully furnished apartments and support to women and children who are escaping domestic abuse.

Organizations that Receive Quilting Supplies

- Edmonton & District Quilters Guild (info@edqg.ca)
- Edmonton Modern Quilt Guild (edmontonmodernquiltguild@gmail.com)
- Victoria's Quilts Canada (edmonton@victoriasquiltscanada.com)
- Quilts of Valour: Edmonton: (diana.cole@quiltsofvalour.ca)
- Whitecourt Pins & Needles Quilt Guild (see Facebook page)

Organizations the Receive Quilting/Sewing/Craft Supplies

- Grandmothers of Alberta for a New Generation (GANG) (edmgrandmothers.org)
- Queen Elizabeth High School (queene@epsb.ca)
- Society of St. Vincent de Paul (ssvp.ca)
- Amiskwaciy Academy (indigenous focused school) contact Kelsey 780-299-5194

Updated Nov. 2025